

Affordable Housing

Crow Wing County

May 2008

The demand for affordable housing exceeds supply.

The unmet affordable housing need through the year 2010 in Crow Wing County is conservatively estimated at 4,436 low-income households.¹ Meanwhile, the number of households in the state spending more than half of their income on housing increased from 1 in 15 in 2000 to 1 in 8 in 2006. Minnesota experienced the fastest increase of extremely cost burdened households of any state in the nation during this time period.²

WHAT IS AFFORDABLE HOUSING?

Housing is considered affordable if it consumes 30% or less of a household's gross income.

Household Income	Renters		Home Owners
	Number of Households Paying Over 30% in Rent	Percent of Households Paying Over 30% in Rent	Number of Households Paying Over 30% for Ownership Costs	Percent of Households Paying Over 30% for Ownership Costs
Less than $19,999	1,443	64%	984	47%
$20,000-$34,999	170	16%	564	23%
$35,000-$49,999	14	2%	301	12%
$50,000 and over	0	0%	246	5%

The table above shows the number and percent of households in different income brackets that pay over 30% of household income for rental or ownership costs.³ It illustrates that the burden of housing costs weighs more heavily on lower-income families.

About 80% of Crow Wing County residents own their home and 20% are renters.⁴

Generally, when households spend more than 30% of their income to meet housing costs, they do not have enough income to meet other basic needs or weather financial setbacks.

Lower-income households face extreme affordability challenges.
